

Stephen Fenner

DECEMBER 22, 2013 12:00 AM

DAVENPORT — Stephen Leon Fenner now rests in peace with his Lord and Savior. Stephen, 52, of Davenport, passed away unexpectedly at Genesis Medical Center-East Rusholme Street, Davenport, on Thursday Dec. 19, 2013.

Funeral services will be 11:30 a.m. Saturday, Dec. 28, in the Runge Mortuary Chapel. Visitation will be 4-7 p.m. Friday, Dec. 27, at the mortuary. Burial will be in Davenport Memorial Park. Memorials may be made to Faith United Methodist Church, to be donated to Timothy's House of Hope. Online condolences may be expressed at www.rungemortuary.com.

Steve was born Aug. 8, 1961, in Webster City, Iowa, to Larry L. and Judith R. Fenner.

Steve served as a mentor for many; had a passion for the game of football and was a long and faithful Chicago Bears fan; enjoyed golfing, spending time with loved ones, and he never turned down the request to be a helping hand. Steve was always giving back and helping others, which fulfilled his purpose for his Lord and Savior.

Steve is survived by his parents, Larry and Judy Fenner; sisters, Jodi Hippler and Jackie Spitzmiller; brother (nephew), Ryan Jacobs; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Laura Jacobs.